

TO STOP SLANDER OF LORAIN PRIEST

Uncle of Father Reichlin Returns from Switzerland with Proof that Murdered Girl Was Sister of Priest.

UNSOLVED CRIME RECALLED.

Police Authorities of Ohio City Are Soured for Trying to Prove Father Walzer Was Murderer of Miss Agatha Reichlin.

Armed with proofs to silence the slanders that have been heaped upon his nephew, Rev. Charles Reichlin, in whose home at Lorain, O., the priest's sister, Miss Agatha Reichlin was brutally murdered in April last, Rev. Casimir Reichlin, of St. Stephen's Church, Cleveland, has returned to America.
He was a passenger on the Holland-American liner Statendam.

"I went to Switzerland," said the elder Reichlin to-day, "to obtain the convincing proofs that Miss Agatha Reichlin was the sister of Rev.
Charles Reichlin, in whose home she was murdered. I got the necessary papers from the Mayor of St. Stephen's in the Canton of Schwyz, where all the Reichlins live, and had them approved by the Governor of the province and the American Consul in Lucerne, which is only an hour's journey away. It was a sad mission, inasmuch as I had to tell the distressing story of the tragedy to the aged parents of the young people.

"The tragedy at Lorain had had most distressing results, mainly through the persistence of the Mayor and District Attorney to fasten the murder of my niece on Father Ferdinand Walzer. The authorities acted foolishly throughout the entire matter.

"There is no doubt the murderer was a robber, who hoped to find something of value in the rectory. He was discovered by Miss Reichlin and tried to beat her into insensibility with a stone.
Father Walzer heard her cries, and rushing to her room, saw the man leave by a ladder which he had placed against the window.

"The girl was lying on the bed, with her head crushed into an unrecognizable mass. Father's Walzer's cries aroused my nephew, Father Charles, and soon brought the police. Instead of accepting the clues furnished by Father Walzer and watching the trolley cars and railroad stations, they searched for the criminal from the town, they picked out Father Walzer as the mur-derer.

"After they had wasted their time in that way and gave the murderer opportunity to escape, they discovered their foolishness. That mistake was bad enough, but members of the Reichlin's congregation were cruel enough to say that the girl was not his sister. She had been in my house at Cleveland for several years before she went to her brother, and I am now bringing back conclusive evidence to silence the slanders."

SUES CLERGYMAN FOR SLANDER.

Mrs. Arcella Cottrell Seeks Damage from the Rev. Dr. Richard Harcourt.

Mrs. Arcella Cottrell has entered a suit in the Supreme Court of New Jersey for $5,000 against the Rev. Dr. Richard Harcourt, a prominent clergyman and one of the largest property holders in Asbury Park, charging him with slander. His home is in Berks County, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Cottrell is a tenant in one of his Asbury Park houses.

There was a dispute over the rent a few months ago and Mrs. Cottrell was ordered to vacate. Later there was a truce declared and she remained in the house. It is charged that during the discussion the minister made remarks reflecting on Mrs. Cottrell.

BRISK WEATHER— BRISK TRADE.

The business opportunity that comes with September is a good one, for there is a long season of busy days to follow before another series of vacation days.

Read this morning's World—the want pages—full of good things to buy and sell. There is a total of ninety-nine Business Opportunities and For Sale advertisements, it says nothing of many columns of other interesting offers.

A young man with $3 to $5 capital and commercial ability is wanted. A furnished-room house is offered for sale, or a saloon, or a bakery, or a grocery, or an ice and coal route, or a cigar store. You can loan money or borrow money; you can sell real estate or buy it. There are bargains in typewriters, desks, billiard tables, sewing machines, bicycles, etc., etc. It pays to read World For Sale and Business Opportunities every morning.

An Extraordinary Sale of Carpets.

One of the Largest Wholesale Houses in the World Recently Notified Us that they had decided to drop Carpets from their business.

We gladly bought. The incentive is found in the quotations that we make public today.

This sale should, and doubtless will, minimize all former records.
No wideawake furnisher of a home or hotel can afford to ignore the claims of such offerings upon their attention. The qualities are unrivalled—more superb or more serviceable Carpets cannot be had.
And the styles—that's an important feature—are squarely up to the most exclusive and artistic standards. We wouldn't have touched them were they antique or passe. Prices are the completing magnets—less than manufacturer's wholesale rates.

Cotton Novelties.—34 ft.

Keep a close, vigilant eye on these creamy Cottons. They are the soft, shimmering, hefty Cottons of Autumn—so different from the filmy, limpy, ethereal summery weaves. They suggest Women's Suits and Waists and Men's Vests.

Four Styles at 49c.—Five to seven-color effects of each—boldly raised bars, faint facet forms, rippled checker-board designs, dim stripes—tan, Nile, pink, delicate blue, navy, biscuit and black tossed up on silky white grounds.

Four Styles at 69c.—Forty distinct color combinations—bits of tints wrought into points and dots, unobtrusive curlicues, dainty honeycomb weaves, prim, quiet specks, curious little breezy, zig-zag, biggled-piggled dashes in charming color mixes.

The Basket Repps are extra highly merceroized, and have already scored a large success, 74c.

Oblique lines, tinted diamond figures woven within raised white borders; two-toned pupil-polka dots embroidered on plain monochrome and pebble grounds, or nestled at the right angle of bisecting colored bars, and various pretty embroidered matelasse figures—98c.

Zibelines Are at Their Zenith.

Luxurious, sumptuous, glistening Zibelines zone the Dress Goods sphere. Their lustrous folds—velvet soft—a-twinkle with silky snarls of drifting hairs, are the fabricjewels of royal Autumn.

The arbiters of Fashion from Paris to New York have given them precedence. They bear the seal of highest favor right richly.

Of course, we knew the set of the style-winds in advance, and had been gathering Zibelines zealously long before the news broke broadly and intensified the demand beyond all bounds of immediate supply.

Hints of the brilliant stuffs—as they are in rallying trade-array at Macy's:

"To Macy's for the New Fall Suits, Skirts and Coats."

That's the shibboleth of thrifty women. It would be strange were it otherwise.

Here is where you may secure authoritative styles; here is where you may enjoy the freedom of large varieties; here is where you may try-on to your heart's content; here is where you are sure to find the garment that fits your form and your ideal; and here is where the price is always moderate, always gauged according to the fair profit of a cash basis. A little direct, definite news concerning a few popular Suits of the period.
